

Be able to recollect details of at least TWO of the following social movements:

The Civil Rights Movements (1950/60s MLK movements / Black Lives Matter)

The Women's Liberation Movement (Suffrage / Waves of Feminism)

Gender/Sexual Orientation Movements (/#MeToo / Gay Rights / LGBTQA)

Global Justice Movements (Zapatistas / Anti-Globalization)

Political Reform Movements (Arab Spring / Tea Party / Nazism / Alt-Right)

Environmental Movements (Greenpeace / Sierra Club)

Be able to recollect details of at least FOUR of the following social movement theories:

Cultural Framing / Symbolic Theory (Goffman, Della Porta)

Resource Mobilization Theory / Organizational Theory (McCarthy, Zald)

Political Process / Contentious Politics (Tarrow, Tilly, McAdam)

Network / Collective Identity Theory (Diani, Castells)

New Social Movements Theory (Touraine, Melucci, Habermas)

Other relevant material:

What is "Post-Materialism"? What movements could be characterized as "post-materialist"?

What is the structure of social movement organizations?

What is the structure of leadership in social movements?

What different typologies of social movements exist?

What is the relationship between citizenship, politics, and social movements?

You may use a 4x6 index card (front and back) to help you remember key details for your answers.